

I invite you to join me and others who are providing students with an opportunity to attend a Catholic School. As we continue our attempts to make our Catholic schools more affordable for parents in Georgia, your contribution to GRACE Scholars, Inc. will provide tuition assistance to families with demonstrated financial need. These young students will be provided an exceptional educational experience that is both identifiably Catholic and of the highest academic quality.

Archbishop Wilton Gregory
Archdiocese of Atlanta