

A Catholic school education serves many avenues for growth, focusing on the academic, moral, and spiritual formation of children and provides them with a well-rounded experience. Parents desire the best for their children and there is no finer gift that you can give a child- it will last a lifetime. Education is the foundation of everything that they will become. When you contribute to GRACE Scholars, you help to ensure that foundation.

Bishop J. Kevin Boland
Diocese of Savannah